

Densely tufted perennial

Poaceae (Grass Family)

Phenology: flowering August through November.

Management Responsibility: USFS (Coronado NF), Tohono O’odham Nation.

Synonym: Muhlenbergia elongata Scribn. ex Beal.

Similar Species: similar to Muhlenbergia rigida; M. xerophila is distinguished by its nodding habit, open panicle, and long awns on lemma.

Notes: known only from Arizona.

References: Gould, 1951. Hitchcock, 1971.

*Muhlenbergia
xerophila*

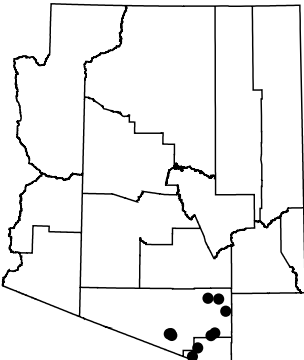

C. David Bertelsen

Habitat: oak woodland and riparian scrub, growing in seeps on bedrock on rocky slopes and cliffs in canyons, 3,520-6,000 ft (1073-1829 m) elevation.

C. David Bertelsen

Range: Santa Catalina, Rincon, Santa Rita, Tumacacori, and Baboquivari mountains and Sycamore Canyon.